HOMERVILLE

Sure signs of spring were presented to us Sunday when a family of six were seen camping just west of our village.

They were very poorly clad one girl having no shoes and the day was too cool for it to be a pleasure.

They have a small wagon and one poor old horse for conveyance. The eldest was a boy, who rode on a bicycle. They were going from Port Clinton to Cambridge, O., and said it would take them seven days to make the journey. They possessed a graphophone and the two men were well supplied with tobacco.

In spite of the rain that set in on Friday evening, the Junior entertainment was well attended and the actors played their parts well.

Sunday visitors at B. F. Delcamp's were W. A. Krause and S. F. Miner and their families, all of Cleveland, and Ross Forney and family of Elyria.

Mrs. Earnest Doolittle visited from Thursday to Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Lee May of Plymouth, O. She and sister belong to the Eastern Stars and attended a meeting of that order while there.

Dover Davis and Mrs. Fields of Willard, O., visited at Homer Barnes last Tuesday.

Charles Cassel sold his farm last week to parties from Cleveland. They got all the equipment and will move here next Tuesday. Mr. Cassel will stay a week or two to assist the new owner to get started at his new work.

J. O. Gordon and wife of Cleveland was on our street Saturday and called on his sister, Mrs. J. M. Lee, in Sullivan and Mrs. Q. L. Eicher; also visited at the J. C. and O. P. Edwards homes Sunday.

Miss Florence Eicher was home from Akron over Sunday.

Miss Freda Franks is still confined to the house. Her S. S. class remembered her with flowers and the S. S. presented her with a basket of fruit which she appreciated very much.

Mr. Krepp has traded his farm to parties from Akron and will move in the near future. The family that comes when Mr. Krepp leaves have eleven children.

Mrs. J. R. Landis spent Sunday with her brother-in-law, S. Stoner and family.

HOMERVILLE SCHOOL NEWS

Frances Thompson is filling the vacancy in our schools. Mr. Schilling, however, does not expect to leave town until the week of May 8.

Friday evening brought rain, but a large crowd enjoyed the play, "Bashful Mr. Bobbs," given by the Junior class. It will be given probably in the near future at Spencer. All those who have not seen it should be sure to go.

May 7 brings another unique entertainment, "Tom Thumb's Wedding," given by the first and second grades. Benefits to be used in the primary room. Be sure to come.

Congress high school base ball team came to Homer Friday, April 29. They played a good game, but Homer spelled "victory" to them.
